- Please be aware that it is the parents' responsibility to pay the school fee on time. After the fee circular is rolled out, the parents have ample time to clear the fee.
- If the fee is not paid on time, students will not be permitted to attend classes, use transportation, or use the mess facility. Therefore, please do not wait for a reminder call or personal message from the school.
- Even after prior notification through official fee circulars, please do not hold the school responsible for the consequences.
- Parents are requested to act in a decent manner while communicating with the admin department about fees or any other matters.
- The school will not tolerate any type of misconduct, harsh behavior, or high-pitched tone while speaking to any of the DWPS staff members in the school campus, and if any parent is found misbehaving with the staff, please be noted that their child will be issued TC immediately.
- We request parents to kindly call the school if the fee is remitted online to generate the receipt.
- Kindly ignore if already paid.

We solicit your co-operation in this regard.
